

Neuromuscular WA Website Content Disclaimer

Any links provided on this website are to other websites which may have no relevance or application to you. They are provided in case they are of interest to our community. Further please note that such linked websites are not under the control of and neither do they form part of Neuromuscular WA. We accordingly make no representation whatsoever as to the nature, content and availability of those websites and accept no responsibility for them.

The inclusion by us of any links does not imply any recommendation or representation about the website or its content and we do not endorse the views expressed within them. We strongly recommend that external sites and content links are never used as a substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

Neuromuscular WA acknowledge that disability services are constantly under review, and for that reason information may go out of date quickly. We will endeavour to keep the site as accurate as possible, but if you find any outdated details, please make us aware via email.

In addition, if you believe that there is information missing from this resource, please let us know by commenting and we will endeavour to make that information available.

Please note that throughout this website we do not provide financial or medical advice, diagnosis or treatment. We will always recommend you seek the advice of a specialist or other qualified professional with any questions you may have regarding your financial situation or medical condition. Never disregard professional medical advice, or delay in seeking advice because of something you may have read on this site or any of the other links.
